- c. The hypothecated assets shall be periodically inspected to ensure its quality.*

VII. Recovery and Collection of Dues

Loans are normally given for definite periods with repayment stipulated on a monthly basis, equated or on staggered or deferred basis. Any defaults in payments will attract penal interest for delay for the amounts defaulted. Such defaults will be followed up for recovery in accordance with the laws of the land which may involve reminding over phone, by mail or by personal visits and or repossession of security. The collection policy will be based on courtesy, fair treatment and persuasion. The staff engaged in the recovery process will be carrying with them duly issued photo identity cards of the company.

VIII. Repossession

Repossession of vehicles of defaulted borrowers will be as per the conditions agreed upon. The company encourages voluntary surrender of vehicles as a matter of policy and refrains from use of force or muscle power for recovery of loans. The company and its employees will stay away from unnecessary interference in the affairs of borrower except for the purposes provided in the loan agreement.

The auction procedure in case of non – repayment shall be transparent. Any sale/ auction of repossessed vehicle shall be only after giving a final chance to borrower for repayment of loan and return of vehicle. Prior notice to the borrower shall be given before the auction and there shall not be any conflict of interest. The sale price will be determined on the basis of public auction or otherwise as to get maximum possible price for the vehicle. If by auction the same shall be announced to the public by issuing advertisements in newspapers in vernacular language. The balance in the loan remaining unpaid after sale will be recoverable from the borrower as per normal laws

IX. Transfer/ takeover of loans

Any request of borrower to transfer the borrowal account will be duly considered and the transfer proceedings shall be transparent and in terms of contractual terms. Any objection on transfers will be conveyed within a period of 21 days from the date of receipt of transfer request.

X. Grievance Redressal Mechanism

The company has a well defined grievances redressal system for addressing the customer complaints at various stages. Any deviations from the loan policy guidelines and transactions or irregularities may be taken up with Branch-in-Charge, who will attend to the needs of customers. All Branches have been provided with complaint Registers wherein the customers can record their complaints. All complaints will be
